

INSPIRED BY SUN, BEACH, FUN & PASSION

All started in April 2016 when I presented my new founded brand SP PARFUMS at the Global Art of Perfumery in Düsseldorf: I met Miguel Matos, who smelled my ESSENTIAL COLLECTION and became a fan of my vintage style mixed up with new elements.

SUNTANGLAM

Some weeks after his first experience and changing mails and ideas, I invited Miguel for an experiment to create his own perfume.

So we started our "Dirty Monoi" project - Miguel came with the idea of a vintage styled fragrance featuring the Suntan smell of self-tanning oils and lotions of the 70s/80s with the glam of the Algarve beach life at that time.

4 month later SUNTANGLAM was born and Miguel asked me for two more scents relating to Lisbon and his childhood's beach memories.

LISBON BLUES

The inspiration for our second perfume came from Fado, the Blues of Lisbon, with the passion of the Portuguese soul called Saudade with all the aspects and nuances between love and hate, passion and melancholy.

I tried to translate Miguel's idea in a "bitter-sweet cocktail" of layerings with soil dyed greens, magnolia with davana and a earthy amber-woody background - that's our LISBON BLUES.

FUNFAIR

One of Miguel's earliest memories is the smell of churros, a typical cinnamon/vanilla pastry, layered with "nag champa" incense sticks - our number three of the trilogy with an olfactive scenery of fun and beachparties- FUNFAIR has the spirit of childhood's cotton candy times, a little bit of circus with the heart of churros and incense.

DEAR MIGUEL, thank you from my heart for friendship, inspiration and the exciting times we had with our "nosy" experiment!
